

Screening in Cornwall

What we do

NHS
Cornwall Partnership
NHS Foundation Trust

Screening liaison nurse service for adults with a learning disability

Find us online at cornwall.nhs.uk

GP Services

Uncle Tom Cobley and all

Health promotion Including CHAMPS

Parents/ Carers

Support people through screening

Provide staff with the reasonable adjustment requirements of each individual

All staff in screening programmes

Screening Liaison nurses

Adult Social Care

Cancer symptom awareness

Link in if someone needs further treatment

People with learning disabilities on the GP's learning disability register

Providers of supported living/care homes and day care

Provide information that is easy to understand

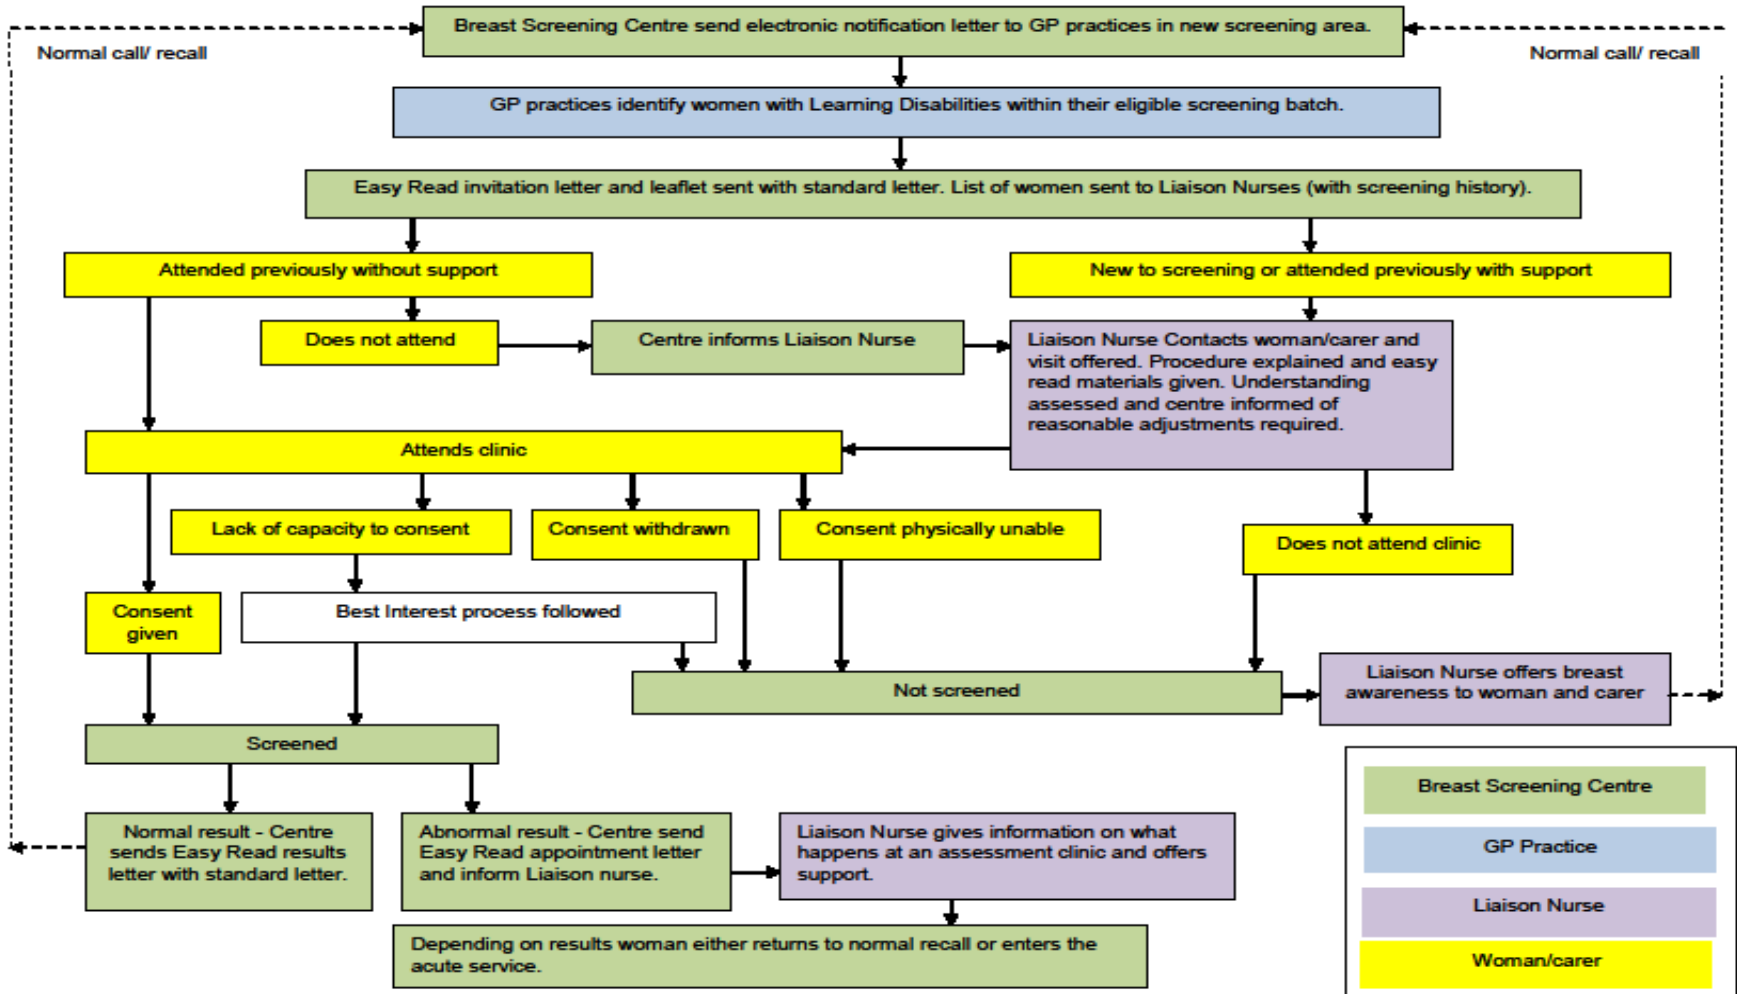

Primary care staff, District nurses, health visitors, etc

Acute Liaison Nurses
Hospital staff

CFT Learning disability service

Pathways

Breast Screening Pathway for women with Learning Disabilities

Reasonable adjustments – whose responsibility?

Common themes – what works well

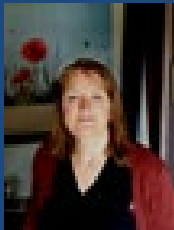

- Early Patient identification
- Easy to understand information and invitations
- Systems
- Link staff within screening programmes
- Liaison staff
- National backing

How can you make this work in your area?

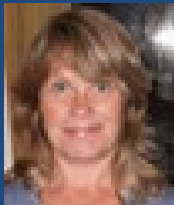

Thank you

Screening Liaison nurse team in Cornwall

Jo Pike

Sharon Ashby

- Email – screeningliaison@nhs.net