

Michael Oeverhaus, *Uk Essen

Michael Oeverhaus is an ophthalmologist and working as a senior consultant at the University Hospital Essen, as well as his own outpatient clinic in Rietberg. He is specialized on orbital diseases and habilitated about “Thyroid Eye Disease” in 2021. He is a Member of the EUGOGO and European society of ophthalmic plastic and reconstructive surgery. His research is focused besides TED on the pathophysiological and genetic background of orbital inflammatory diseases, like idiopathic orbital inflammation and IgG4-ROD. About these topics he published more than 35 articles in international peer-reviewed journals and serves also as an regular Reviewer for several journals as OPRS and IOVS.