

Jimmy Uddin, Moorfields Eye Hospital

Jimmy Uddin MB BChir MA FRCOphth Consultant Adnexal Surgeon, Moorfields Eye Hospital, London Trained in ophthalmology with Jack Kanski, Windsor, London, Norwich, Cambridge and Moorfields Eye Hospital & Maarten Mourits Most senior Adnexal consultant in Moorfields Eye Hospital He has led the Thyroid Eye Disease Service over 20 years Full Time Consultant since 2002. Moorfields Eye Hospital NHS Trust, London UK He has worked as an oculoplastic, orbital and lacrimal sub-specialist ophthalmologist in the NHS Both at Moorfields eye Hospital, City Rd and large teaching hospital, St George's Hospital, south London He has trained over 50 international and national fellows from all the 5 continents Formerly: Training director, Adnexal service Service Director, Adnexal service Clinical Director for Surgery, Moorfields Eye Hospital Past President ITEDS (International Thyroid Eye Disease Society) and founder member Founder Member of British Oculoplastic Surgery Society Member of the European Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery. American Academy of Ophthalmology TeaMed committee Trustee TEDct (Thyroid Eye Disease Charitable Trust) Research Chief Investigator, Principal Investigator for a number of TED trials and active in orbital & oculoplastic research Principle investigator for CIRTED (combined immunosuppression & radiotherapy in thyroid eye disease) Horizon/Amgen; Teprotumumab Viridian Lassen; Sling (Linsitinib) Immunovant Roche (Satralizumab) Acelyrin.