

Tomasz Bednarczuk, Medical University of Warsaw

Tomasz Bednarczuk, M.D, Ph.D., professor of medicine, at the Department of Internal Medicine and Endocrinology at the Medical University of Warsaw. The department is one of the largest centers in Poland for treatment of patients with various endocrine disorders, including thyroid, parathyroid, adrenal and neuroendocrine tumours. Dr Bednarczuk is a clinical scientist with a special research focus on Graves' disease and Thyroid Eye Disease. He has published more than 100 papers in peer-reviewed journals. Together with the Department of Ophthalmology, he founded the only EUGOGO certified center in Poland for the diagnosis and treatment of patients with Thyroid Eye Disease. Dr Bednarczuk served as Treasurer of the European Thyroid Association (2018-2024). Moreover, he was a member of the executive committee of Polish Society of Endocrinology and Polish Thyroid Association.