

Physical Aspects of Polymer Science 2019

11–13 September 2019

University of Lincoln, Lincoln, UK

Organised by the IOP Polymer Physics Group

<http://paps19.iopconfs.org>

The 29th biennial meeting of the Polymer Physics Group provides an opportunity for researchers from both academia and industry to discuss the latest innovations in understanding and manipulating the physical behaviour of a wide range of polymeric systems.

Invited Speakers

- Rachel Evans, University of Cambridge, UK
- Marie-Pierre Laborie, University of Freiburg, Germany
- Juan de Pablo, University of Chicago, USA
- James Sharp, University of Nottingham, UK

Polymer Physics Group Founder's prize winner

- Masao Doi, Beihang University, China
