

Dr Hugh Deighton

Chair, Environmental Physics Group

Dr Hugh Deighton recently retired after a career principally involved with environmental and atmospheric sensing and he was involved in the design and delivery of several generations of algorithm processing systems for European meteorological satellites.