

Modern Practice in Stress and Vibration Analysis 2012

29–31 August 2012

University of Glasgow, UK

Organised by the IOP Applied Mechanics Group

Sponsorship opportunities

The Modern Practice in Stress and Vibration Analysis (MPSVA) conferences offer a showcase for the best international research in the fields of vibration analysis and stress analysis and technical areas where they intersect. MPSVA2012 is the latest in this series and will be held at the University of Glasgow on 29–31 August 2012.

Sponsorship

Sponsorship is invited from companies and organisations wishing to raise their profile and increase their visibility before, during and after the conference.

The following are just some of the reasons to sponsor MPSVA:

- An opportunity to promote your organisation and raise your profile within the wider community
- Promote your company name to national and international participants before, during and after the conference – these include decision makers, scientists, students and community members
- Demonstrate your commitment to assisting the development of young researchers
- Your company's support will be acknowledged widely through web-based and printed materials
- Sponsorship contributes significantly to the promotion, planning and operation of the conference, reducing the overall cost of managing the event and enabling a higher level of participation
