

Sensors & their Applications XVII

16 – 18 September 2013

Rixos Libertas, Dubrovnik, Croatia

<http://sensors.iopconfs.org>

The S&A series of conferences provides an excellent opportunity to bring together scientists and engineers from academia, research institutes and industrial establishments to present and discuss the latest results in the field of sensors, instrumentation and measurement.

Who should exhibit?

The exhibition is aimed at:

- providers of equipment associated with sensors, instrumentation and measurements;
- publishers working in the scientific community;
- employers of science graduates.

Why exhibit?

- launch new business products;
- forge new business links;
- demonstrate products in action;
- advertise to a specialised audience;
- raise your profile within the community.

Exhibition Package

Space is available as a table-top display and includes:

- one 2m x 1m clothed table with one chair;
- web link;
- company logo on website;
- one representative can attend for three days;
- handbook entry;
- one A4 insert in the delegates pack.

The total package is £450 plus VAT (VAT is charged at the prevailing rate.)

Location

The exhibition will be taking place at Rixos Libertas Dubrovnik Hotel, Liechtensteinov put 3, 20 000 Dubrovnik, Hrvatska, Croatia.

Exhibition

The exhibition will take place on 16–18 September. The lunch and poster sessions will take place in the exhibition area.
